

Tomb Secret

Cryptically creepy, few costumes are better suited for Halloween than the Tomb Secret Mummy Child Costume. Tattered fabric strips attached to a poly knit jumpsuit give the undead full range of motion during Halloween parties, Thriller dances or trick-or-treating. A detachable hood makes it easy for your Mummy to comply with classroom dress codes or keep cool on an unseasonably warm night, just like those in ancient Egypt. The distressed coloring of this Dream Weavers costume adds to its realism, making it appear as if your child has been roaming the earth for thousands of years.

- Includes: Jumpsuit and detachable headpiece
- Velcro closure at back and neck
- Suitable for a large child or small teen
- Scary costume for any undead character, mummy, pharaoh or zombie

Go a Little Bit Mad

Wild and whimsical like the Hatter himself, this costume is much more muchier than Alice ever was. A perfect combination of bright colors patterned with diamonds, dots, stripes and Wonderland-inspired designs give this dress a personality as unique as your child—whether small or tall. An oversized bow on the top hat matches the neck tie on the dress. Pair it with a petticoat and some neon tights for added flair. If her tea party gets a little out of control and she spills her cup, a quick spin in the washing machine gets it clean in time for her next important date.

- Includes: dress and matching top hat.
- Easy back closure enables her to dress herself for any occasion.
- Made from polyester.
- Machine washable.
